

Cookie Policy for Visits to the Website of ANTWEB LLC Struga

When you visit our website or use our services, ANTWEB LLC Struga, as well as third parties authorized by us, collect cookies that contain data about you. Below is an explanation of our cookie usage policy.

We use cookies to administer our website, analyze trends, track user activity, and enable personalized promotional messages and advertisements.

When you first access the ANTWEB LLC Struga website, you may receive a message informing you that we use cookies. By clicking “Accept All”, closing the pop-up window, or continuing to use the website, you confirm that you understand and agree to the use of these technologies as described in this Cookie Policy.

The notification includes a “Cookie Settings” button, allowing you to choose which cookies related to your visit will be stored. Each type of cookie is explained, and more detailed information is provided below in this policy.

You are not required to accept cookies, and your consent can be withdrawn at any time (see “How to control cookies” below). You can adjust your browser settings to limit or block cookies and delete them at any time. If you disable cookies, some parts of the website may not function properly or may load more slowly.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files (pieces of code) used by websites to improve user experience. They are stored on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. When you revisit the same site, cookies allow us to recognize your browser. Cookies may store your preferences and other information but cannot access your files, read data from your hard drive, or access cookies stored by other websites.

Cookies set directly by antweb.io are called “first-party cookies”, while cookies set by others are called “third-party cookies.”

Third-party cookies enable functionalities such as advertising, social media features, and analytics. These cookies are not owned or controlled by ANTWEB LLC Struga.

Why are cookies used?

Cookies are used to better understand how visitors use the website and to optimize user experience. They help recognize user devices and personalize content and advertisements for greater relevance.

These data may be collected across browsers and devices (computers, laptops, smartphones, tablets). Marketing cookies do not contain personal data.

Types of cookies we use:

Necessary cookies. Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions such as page navigation. Without these cookies, the website cannot function properly.

Preference cookies. Preference cookies allow the website to remember information that changes the way it behaves or looks, such as your preferred language or the region you are in.

Performance and functionality cookies. This type of cookie is used to track whether you return to our website. These cookies contain general information, such as the city from which you access ANTWEB LLC Struga. It is important to note that these cookies are not essential and do not significantly affect your experience when visiting our site.

Third-party cookies. Cookies set by other parties are called “third-party cookies.” These cookies enable various functionalities on our website, such as advertising, social media features, and analytics. These cookies are not owned by ANTWEB LLC Struga, and ANTWEB LLC Struga has no control over how they are used.

How can I control cookies?

When you first visit the website antweb.io, you may receive a notification informing you that we use cookies. By clicking “Accept All”, closing the pop-up window, or continuing to use the website, you confirm that you understand and agree to the use of these technologies as described in this Cookie Policy.

The notification includes a “Cookie Settings” button, allowing you to choose which cookies related to your visit to antweb.io will be stored. Specifically, you can select which non-essential (preference) cookies you want to allow.

You are not required to accept cookies, and your consent can be withdrawn at any time. Through your web browser settings, you can control which cookies you keep and which you do not wish to retain. You may also contact the company that sets and controls the cookies.
